

Reading comment prompts

Please use these prompts when reading with your child. Remember understanding what they read is vitally important. Please refer to our Read Write Inc section on our website for further support with sounds.

- Did you discuss features of the fiction/non-fiction text?
- Did your child sound out well?
- Were there particular words the child struggled with repeatedly?
- Did you discuss the meaning of new vocabulary?
- Did your child answer simple questions? (Can be found in text-e.g. What is the boy called?)
- Did the child answer harder questions (E.g. why do you think he was walking slowly home after losing his pocket money?)
- Could your child scan read the text to find answers/quotes?
- Did you discuss punctuation?
- Could your child name the punctuation used?
- Did your child use the punctuation to read at pace?
- Did your child use expression?
- Did your child read fluently?